Make Allowance For The Purchase of Fire Escapes And Repairs to the Inside of The Building

At the regular meeting of the school board held last Tuesday evening the board struck the estimates for the coming fiscal year. In all the figures arrived at amounted to $21,000. Although this is $1,000 more than last year's estimates, and although the board has a slight surplus over last year's estimates, the increased amount asked for is to provide for improvements and additions to the present school building.

It is the intention of the board to have the interior of the school renovated and the present state repaired. The estimates also provided for the purchase and installation of a fire escapes for the building.

German Property In Manitoba Watched

An effort to wrest for the Dominion of Canada several thousand acres of southern Manitoba property from the German-Canadian Loan Company was started in the Manitoba courts last Tuesday, when E. P. Garland, acting for the minister of justice, applied to the court for an order vesting in the minister of finance for the Dominion of Canada the property belonging to that company.

It is claimed that the company owns several thousand acres of land in southern Manitoba, which it is dealing with through Michael Ritz, its manager.

The crown's applications is based on the provisions of the war measures act.

Huns Try to Bribe Russia With Gold

The Russian provisional government's investigation to ascertain whether there is a plot to open the Russian lines to let German troops through to put down the revolt has developed (according to news coming by way of Finland and Sweden) these things:

The commander at Libau, it is alleged, received $1,500,000.

The alleged price paid for the surrender of Kovnan has not been ascertained.

Gen. Kuropatkin, the governor of Riga, got $3,000,000, it is asserted, but sent the money to the duma government at Petrograd and not to surrender his position. When the German commissioner who conveyed the bribe found that Riga was not to be evacuated he committed suicide.

HUNS PROTEST AGAINST AMERICAN DECLARATION

An Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Amsterdam says it is reported there that the German government contemplates sending to all neutrals a protest against the expected American declaration that the United States with Germany exists. It is hoped in Germany, the dispatch adds, that the protest will influence South American republics, as it will denounce President Wilson's policy as perilous to the neutrality of the republics of Central and South America.

EXILED RUSSIANS GO BACK TO NATIVE LAND

Fifty thousand exiles, carrying victims of the old regime back to freedom in the new Russia from the mines and convict settlements of Siberia, are speeding in an endless chain across the snows of North Asia toward the nearest point on the Trans-Siberian railway. Their passengers range from members of the old terrorist societies to exiles who were banished by administrative decrees without trial or even known offense.

Surprise Party For Mrs. G. L. Gordon

The ladies of the Presbyterian church again surprised their minister's wife on Friday of last week when they gathered at the church to celebrate her birthday. After hearty congratulations, mostly in the form of 1 Theodosian 5:30. Mrs. F. W. Suberland, president of the Ladies' Aid, addressed Mrs. Gordon in well chosen words, expressing the attachment to her and the good wishes and other useful articles, as a token of their appreciation and loyalty. The lady of the manse was taken utterly by surprise and replied in words of gratitude for these and the many other kindnesses experienced at the hands of the ladies during all their helpfulness. The minister's wife, of her church, and expressed her affection for them and her sense of unworthiness of their great kindness.

Thereafter the social interest was increased by guessing contest which some of the members had prepared. The results in Miss M. Wilson carrying off one prize and Mrs. D. C. Smith another. Ten sandwiches were served. Mrs. G. L. Gordon sang very beautifully "The Song that Reached My Heart," and as an encore, "Mary of Argyle."

The fifty ladies who with their minister spent a very pleasant afternoon. Several present at last year's celebration. The president declared that she never again would be so kind to her.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon wish us for them to be hearty than all the rest of us, and was assisted, whether present or absent, in bringing about this happy event.

Roosevelt Wants to Go to Firing Line

Colonel Roosevelt, standing in the midst of a great crowd in the railroad station at Washington, dictated the following statement:

"The president's message is a great state paper which will be in history among the great state papers of which Americans in future years will be proud. It now rests with the people of the country to see that we put in practice the policy the president has outlined and that we strike as hard, as soon and as effectively as possible in aggressive war against the government of Germany. We must send troops to the firing line as rapidly as possible. Our defensive war is hopeless. We must be vigorous offensive warfare, win the right to have our voice heard for peace and justice when the time for peace comes."

"I of course, very earnestly hope that I may be allowed to raise a division for immediate service at the front. I guarantee that no finer body of fighting men could be gathered than there would be in that division, but of course the men to whom I would appeal will come forward only if it is understood that the division is to be sent at the earliest possible practicable moment into the fighting line."

Farmers' Company To Build Elevators

Several companies are planning to construct this spring a large number of new storehouses in Alberta. The Alberta Farmers' co-operative company counts on putting up forty storehouses in the province before the 1917 crop is ripe there to reach from the coast to the coast. The company, already 86 sites have been secured, and negotiations are under way for the remainder. All railways are being treated impartially, and new structures will appear this year on practically every branch line in the province. The total cost of the elevators is placed roughly at $350,000 and the capacity of the structure will be all the way from 30,000 to 60,000 bushels each. The buildings will be planned much the same as those already in use by this company, with all modern handling and storing facilities.

Placing the average storage capacity of these elevators at 40,000 bushels, the total additional capacity which will be provided by this company for the 1917 crop will be 1,600,000 bushels. Work is to be commenced at once, and about 150 men will be employed.

UNITED STATES DECLARES WAR ON GERMANY

Both Senate and House Give Big Vote In Favor of Resolution--$3,400,000,000 Asked for by Army and Navy to Make Preparation.

Since the following was put in type we have learned that the house of representatives passed the war resolution by a vote of 355 to 50.

The anxiously looked for meeting of the United States senate and congress took place last Monday as scheduled, and the outcome is that country is now into the great war on the side of Britain and her allies.

In addressing Congress assembled in joint session President Wilson urged declaring that a state of war existed between the United States and Germany.

In a dispassionate but unmeasured denunciation of the course of the imperial German government, which he characterized as a challenge to all mankind and a warfare against all nations, the president declared that neutrality no longer was feasible or desirable where the peace of the world was involved; that armed neutrality had become ineffectual enough at best, and was likely to produce what it was meant to prevent, and urged that congress accept the gauntlet of battle with all the resources of the nation.

The president advised that the congress receive the record of the imperial German government to be in fact nothing less than war against the government and people of the United States. "That it formally accept, he stated of a belligerent which has thus been thrust upon it and that it take steps not only to put the country in a great thorough state of defense, but also to exert all its power and employ all its resources to bring the government of the German empire to terms and end the war."

When the president had finished speaking, resolutions were introduced in both houses of congress, referred to appropriate committees and were debated the following days.

The resolution brought before the senate Wednesday evening was debated on into the night and was passed by that body by an overwhelming majority. The vote stood 85 for and only 5 against.

It is senators who cast the negative votes were: Grimes, North Dakota; Ladd, Wisconsin; Norris, Nebraska; Lane, Oregon; Stone, Missouri; Vandamm, Mississippi.

The resolution drafted says the state of war thrust upon the United States by Germany is formally declared, and directs the president to employ the entire military and naval forces and the resources of the government to carry on war and bring it to a successful termination.

At the time of going to press there had not been a division in the house of representatives, as the administration line leaders are anxious to have every representative express his views. However the report says there is no doubt that 1,500,000 men in the dominions have taken up arms for the empire.

"The Canadian force in Europe thus numbered 14,000. It is proved to you today that Canada has sent forth more than 350,000 men, and our total enrollment exceed 400,000. In the Canadian force alone more than 300,000 men have left the shores of the Dominion."

What Press Think of Wilson's Stand

Under the heading "Brothers in Arms" the Fall Mail Gazette says of President Wilson's stand:

"The president frames the issue in a setting calculated to stir the deepest emotions of the American people. The American revolution enables him to commend it to them a conflict between virtues of democracy and the fact of autocracy. It is a great satisfaction to be joined thus with the nation carrying so much of our blood in a crusade worthy of its best traditions and our best."

The Globe says: "German statesmen have scornfully accepted to regard the entrance of the United States as negligible. We can safely leave them to do out their mistake."

With this derisive he expects to haul two poles and turn over about four cents a day.

CHURCH OF ENGLAND. Easter Collection.

"Drys" Gain Big Victory in States

The dry forces administered one of the most severe defeats to the liquor forces in the middle west last Tuesday that has yet resulted in the prohibition movement, when the capital of two states, in addition to a number of small towns voted to close their saloons. Springfield, Illinois, and Madison, Wisconsin, were the capitals which went into the prohibition column, and Duluth, Minnesota, the third city of the state and one of the principal Great Lakes ports, voted the same way by 1,500 majority. Practically complete reliance was placed on the state and one of the principal Great Lakes ports, voted the same way by 1,500 majority. Russian Affairs Will Effect Greece

The Russian revolution has thrown a different light upon Greek affairs and opened the eyes of the Greeks to the fact that they are being treated as a chess piece in the form of the Hellenic government. They now realize that it would be folly to continue supporting King Constantine, who admittedly is in daily communication with Berlin and surrounded even in his own family by German influence, when by swinging the influence of the entire solid vote to the Venizelist movement they could gain the full participation of Greece in the war.

Opportunity To Build Creamery Here

A firm in Edmonton writes stating that it is their intention to establish a number of creameries and farm produce plants at various points throughout the province. These are to be established on a co-operative basis, farmers and business men being invited to participate in the enterprise.

In the letter the writer says: "We have discussed our plans with the Hon. Duncan Marshall, minister of agriculture, and Mr. Morley, dairy commissioner, and in view of the facilities now being provided by the government for the purchase of cow-calf, existence of an up-to-date creamery should be of enormous benefit to every farming community."

Shows Dominions Are Doing Their Share

Sir Robert Borden, his colleagues, Gen. Smuts and the other delegates to the imperial conference, were lunched in the house of commons, by the Empire Parliamentary association, when reminded by the speaker of the colonial secretary presiding.

"A little more than 20 months has elapsed since I last addressed you," said Sir Robert Borden. "We had some realization, but hardly an adequate conception even then of the fact, but we have a better, and came over the top with all his belongings, including a safety razor, an extra pair of boots and a box of German cigars."

The cigars he distributed among the nearly 300 prisoners were taken during the day, which indicates that the German casualties must have been heavy. The Canadians took a remarkable German prisoner. As a matter of fact, he was a doctor, and came over the top with all his belongings, including a safety razor, an extra pair of boots and a box of German cigars."

BRITISH AND FRENCH PRESS HUNS' HARD

Strongly Fortified Villages Are Crumbling Before Them -- Take 6 Guns and 300 Prisoners

There has been stiff fighting along a wide front southeast of Arras and the strongly fortified villages held by the Germans in front of the so-called Hindenburg line are crumbling. These outposts have been held with the greatest tenacity, especially Choiseul, where intermittent fighting has been going on for the past two weeks. The reason the Germans are holding these last villages, with no determination, it appears, is because their retreat has been hurried to a much greater extent than they expected.

A striking feature of the fighting was that in some of the captured villages the British and French exerted splendidly in suppressing counter-attacks. The Germans were forced to abandon six field guns and nearly 300 prisoners were taken during the day, which indicates that the German casualties must have been heavy.

The Canadians took a remarkable German prisoner. As a matter of fact, he was a doctor, and came over the top with all his belongings, including a safety razor, an extra pair of boots and a box of German cigars."

EASTER.

Easter is again here and with it comes the annual resurrection season and feeling. The reminder that "death is swallowed up in victory" that out of sorrow and distress comes renewed vigor and life; that in the event which we are at this time commemorating, the darkest hour was just before the dawn.

At this season, therefore, which is immortalized by the resurrection of the Saviour of the world, all should be filled with a feeling of new life, new energy, new hope and a renewed obligation. It is not a sad time; it is a joyous time. Even though a dark cloud is hanging over the universe there is hope that from out this gloom may come the dawn of a new era; the burying forever of spite, jealousy, and selfish ambitions, and the resurrection of the real brotherhood of man.

HAVE A GARDEN.

The time is now drawing near for the preparation of plots for garden purposes. On several occasions in the past we have endeavored to point out the great advantages to one's self and his family in having a little garden patch. Now, however, this matter becomes a patriotic duty. For the past eighteen months food stuffs have been soaring in price with unparalleled rapidity until now the cost of living has reached a serious stage. In view of conditions throughout the world this is but natural and while we prefer to look on the bright side of things we are forced to the conclusion that the worst is not yet. The entrance of the United States into the war and the assurance of the president that its first duty is to supply the allies now in the field with materials which can only be supplied by it or through its assistance, leaves no room for arriving at any other conclusion.

A garden that will keep you table well supplied with good, wholesome food during the summer and allow you to store away some for the winter, will not only aid materially in solving your own problem, but it will mean allowing just that much more to be shipped overseas to those less fortunate.

The provincial government has an advertisement along this line in this issue. Look it up. Read it carefully, then do a little thinking and planning.

NOT OUR FAULT.

On several occasions lately we have been asked by both pupils and parents why we didn't publish the school honor roll as was our custom previously. The answers were of the opinion that the idea was a good one and gave many reasons in support of their opinion. That the children were interested in them, we have ample proof.

For the benefit of our readers we might state that it is not the Review's fault that these reports are not now published monthly. We are perfectly willing to give our space for this or any other matter which will have a tendency to create a keener interest in our school and school work. The fault is evidently Principal Liggett's, as he does not furnish us with the necessary copy. Of course our readers are aware of the way the Review exposed Mr.

Liggett's tactics in the past and will see that his feelings toward this paper are none too kindly, hence he would like to do to us what he did to the teachers who refused to bow and scrape before him.

U. S. IN WAR.

With the possible exception of the Russian revolution, nothing has happened in connection with the war during the past year which has had a more stimulating effect than the announcement that the United States has declared war on Germany.

This move on the part of the republic to the south may have appeared some a long time in coming but it seems to us that conditions warranted the delay. At the time when it became evident to President Wilson that the break must come, conditions were such that it would have been unwise for him to have taken steps to declare war right off the bat. First and foremost, he was aware that the German representatives in the States were, in a dishonorable and underhand way, conspiring with Germany to make trouble just as soon as the declaration was made. He knew of the German system of espionage that was at work and ready to destroy valuable war property when the signal was given. These had to be rounded up and the property guarded, else their dirty work at the start would have seriously interfered with the prosecution of the war once it was declared. Then there were the thousands of Americans in Germany and Canada and the American missionaries, teachers and business men in Turkey and Asia Minor, who were as defenceless against the foe around as the very Armenians, to be considered. The reasons why the president has hesitated in declaring war during the past few weeks are apparent. He has been giving the Americans in the zone of danger time to escape for their lives, he has wanted to master the peril within his own borders before issuing a challenge to the dangers without.

But now he has taken the final step and both senate and the president's representatives are almost unanimously behind him. His speech made before congress was a masterpiece and can leave no doubt in the minds of German sympathizers or the outside world just where the United States stands with regard to the German imperial government. It shows that he is in sympathy with the actions of Britain and her allies in their endeavor to overthrow that disgraced and dishonored government when he says:

"We are accepting this challenge of hostile power because we know that in such a government, following such methods, we can never have a friend; and that in the presence of its organized power, always lying in wait to accomplish we know not what purpose, there can be no assured security for the democratic governments of the world."

WHY THE DELAY.

Evidently the school board is wakening up at last to the fact that our school is a regular fire trap and that no provision is made for the safety of the children placed under their care.

The Review brought this important matter to the attention of the board months ago and the wonder is, that with all our laws, provincial and Dominion laws regarding fire escapes on public buildings, they have been able to get away with such negligence so long.

This is a serious matter, too many precious lives are in jeopardy to allow this to dilly dally along in this way. Economy is no excuse and besides the law requires it.

The Minister of Finance at Ottawa is asking for the assistance of the public in getting a line on all the enemy property in Canada. All British subjects in any way connected with such property or have knowledge of it are requested to forward all information to Sir Thomas White, Ottawa. Besides property, real and personal, the minister wants all the information regarding enemy debts, bank deposits and balances, notes and claims against enemy governments. This is an important matter and the step is no doubt taken to protect Canadians and their friends. Anyone in possession of any such information should forward their assistance in every possible way.

An act was passed at this session of the legislature which will be of interest to farmers and others who have stallions. According to the act it will be necessary for owners of stallions to enroll them and receive a certificate from the government before they may be offered for service. We would advise any concerned to look carefully into the matter before securing round cards or laying plans for the season.

In its Wednesday edition the Medicine Hat News says: "The potato famine in Ontario and Quebec furnishes another instance of reprehensible callousness, if not worse, on the part of the Dominion government." If this had appeared in the joke column of the News it might have been a good one, but it is given a prominent place among the editorial comment.

Ontario Will Enforce

School Regulations

The French representatives of the Ontario legislature are still refusing to accept the situation developed in the house last week, when the legislature overwhelmingly voted in support of the government in its determination to disallow the English-French school regulations, following a debate upon the secondary Ottawa commission bill—that indemnifying the former commission against action by the school board—the five French-Canadian members again called for a poll of the house on a motion to give a poll of the house on a motion to give the bill six months' hold. They kept up their rhetoric, when the bill giving authority for the appointment of a new commission was going through committee, pressing an amendment that required an application to the supreme court of Canada for a legal opinion upon the validity of the new measure.

British Widen Wedge

In St. Quentin Region

The British widened the wedge they had inserted in the German line in the region of St. Quentin, and captured the villages of Ailly and Villersbretteux, respectively southeast and northwest of the village of Verdun.

The British drove a wedge in the German line at St. Quentin, and captured Ailly and Villersbretteux. The fighting in the vicinity of St. Quentin was very determined, and the German casualties were found to have been heavier than was supposed at first. The Germans lost several hundred men, including 81 who were taken prisoner. An official report from British admits these British gains.

THE VICTORY LOAN.

That the subscriptions to Canada's victory war loan totaled $267,543,000 of which $60,000,000 was received from chartered banks, and $19,121,000 represented contributions from the 1915-16 bond issue, was announced by Sir Thomas White, minister of finance. The amount of the loan stock which will be subscribed by the government is $25,000,000.

The number of subscriptions to the loan exceeds $200,000, which is over 1,000 more than in the case of the loan of last year. Subscriptions of less than $25,000 represent a total of $22,500,000.

Black—What do you do when you wife asks you to mind the baby?
Peck—Mind my wife.

Wanted a Lot

The following letter, according to the "Great Western Magazine" was recently addressed to the general manager of that railway:

"Please send me one tourist ticket for Toronto round trip (six months) for train leaving Paddington next Tuesday at 10.30 a.m. (arriving Toronto 5.5 p.m.)."

"Please reserve corner seat facing engine as near centre of train as possible—corridor carriage—no children, quiet company."

"Also luncheon (chicken) basket with glass hot milk and water (mixed) at twelve o'clock."

"Also tea basket China weak tea at three o'clock."

"Also twenty-five cents for guard to see that the driver does not race or rush the train, especially round curves and at inclines, and watch the signals well and machinery well oiled and not overworked."

Bill's Luck

"Billie is a lucky fellow to have a month like this!"

"Why lucky?"

"Can you hear him? He can whistle a dust with it!"

A Deadly Insect

"HARRY, love," exclaimed Mrs. Knowall to her husband on his return one evening from his office, "I have been dreadfully insulted!"

"Insulted!" exclaimed her husband, "by whom?"

"By your mother," answered the young wife, bursting into tears.

"My mother, Floss?—Nonsense! She's miles away."

"Floss dried her tears. 'I'll tell you all about it, Harry,' she said. 'A letter came to this morning addressed in your mother's handwriting so, of course, I read it.'"

"Of course," repeated Harry dryly, "it was written to you all the way through. Do you understand?"

"I understand. But where does the result come in?"

"It is—it came in the p.p.s.t.—cried the wife, bursting into fresh floods of tears. 'It said: P.P.S.B.—Dear Floss, I don't fail to give this letter to Harry. I want him to have it.'"

Second Husband

Smith: "Does your wife think you're the best man who ever lived?"

Jones: "Of course not! I'm her second husband!"

General News Notes

Hocks Der Kaiser And is Strung Up

A stranger, believed to be a German, who shouted "Hock Der Kaiser" as he stood drinking at a saloon bar in a Wyoming town, narrowly escaped lynching at the hands of Thermopolisians, whom his cry infuriated. As the stranger lifted the glass to his lips shouting his toast he was knocked down by a miner, a rope appeared as if by magic and in a moment the man hanging from a beam. Before life was extinct, however, the counsel of cooler heads prevailed, and he was cut down by the city marshal. He was then unconscious, but was revived with cold water, and then forced to kneel and kiss the American flag. He was then warned to get out of town. He did.
